

They all said that it gets better.

Alaa Dusky

They all said that it gets better.

A reflective journey into young adulthood

Author: Alaa Dusky

Year of publication: 2025

© Alaa Dusky

The lie they tell you.....	7
The myth of momentum.....	9
The highs that confuse you	13
When you watch everyone else succeed	16
The role of friendship in staying afloat	19
The Science Behind It	20
Friendship isn't always easy	20
Learning to let in.....	21
Holding on and letting go	22
The quiet work of becoming	23
Grief, again	26
The return to yourself	27
Adulting and the myth of arrival	28
The myth of arrival	30
The pressure to perform adulthood	30
Redefining what it means to grow up.....	31
You don't have to arrive here.....	31
Self-compassion over self-improvement.....	32
The trap of constant self-optimization.....	32
What self-compassion really means.....	33
Letting go of the need to be fixed.....	33
Healing isn't linear, but it's real.....	35
The shame spiral.....	35
What Growth Really Looks Like.....	36
You're not backsliding, you're building muscle	37
Grieving the life you thought you'd have	38
The in-between seasons	41
When you don't feel worthy of love	42

Carrying things that aren't yours43
The peace in not knowing.....44
Learning to Trust Joy46
The Quiet Power of Small Wins47
It Doesn't Get Easier—You Do.....50

